(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—The five meat packers were charged in testimony before the house agricultural committee by J. Montgomery of Idaho, with having reduced livestock prices and driven growers from business. Montgomery said he was "just an ordinary stock grower" who upturned indignation in protest against the packers. "The packers are on the verge of ruin," he said.

BOULDERS ASSAY OVER $450 TON

When it comes to shipping scenery, Los Angeles is there with the goods as it is preparing to send out a carload of rocks which he gathered promiscuously from the landscape of his new home adjoining the old Pepper mine over the California border. Samples of these boulders yield $450 and $520 a ton in silver after an effort was made to secure what would be a general sample of the time after excluding picked specimens. William A. Bradley, formerly of the Pittsburgh Silver Peak, returned last night from visiting the property and is enthusiastic over the prospects for making a big mine. The company will proceed to run a drift tunnel through the central peak which appears held up by a mass of quartz. The location is thirty-five miles northeast of the Pine and four miles over the border from Nevada.

CHRIS ZIEGLER GETS A TELEGRAM

Chris Ziegler, of the T. & G. market, received a wire this morning that caused him to think the rising generation is rather precocious. The message read "Grandpa. Arrived today. March 3. Jane Virginia Ziegler." The telegram brought a smile to the face of the veteran as he thought of this first arrival in the family of his son Lester T. Ziegler, who named the daughter after her mother's birthplace. Lester resided in Tonopah for many years and served two years with the map corps of the American force and was in the front line during the whole of the war. The mother of the child is the former Hazel Kester, of Richwood. The couple live in San Francisco. Chris is a double grandpa.

OFFICIAL VISIT TO ELKS LODGE

Thomas F. Dunn, of Goldfield, first deputy exalted ruler of the Elks, made his official visit to Tonopah last evening when he received a greeting from a large attendance of members. During the evening three initiations were induced into the mysteries of the antlers. The visitor congratulated Tonopah lodge on the splendid growth shown during the year and the evidence of substantial improvement visible in the improvements planned for the home. The remarks were received with great enthusiasm. During the exercises the Elks orchestra under the direction of Bill Young rendered a varied program "Dardanella" being the featured number.

POLICE AFTER AIR GUN BOYS

Jack Grant, chief of police, has issued orders calling for the immediate arrest of every boy found with one of the air guns. These boys, according to the chief, are a pest to the community and should be put to rest. The complaints embrace everything from the slaying of innocent little snowbirds which boys rushed through a hard winter, to the shooting of expensive windows. In some instances children have been hit with the tiny missiles and one case is reported where a boy was spared the loss of an eye by the protection of his glasses which received the pellet from the gun.

NATIONAL BANK CALL

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—The comptroller of currency has issued a call for national banks to report conditions on February 25.

Chairman Duffin warned the audience that unless order be maintained "we will quit these hearings." Hale urged relief to discharged service men of $20 a month instead of $20 a week in addition $100 to those who served overseas. He also favored passage of the Morgan bill which would give service men the option of selecting headquarters.

NEWBERRY CASE GOES TO PIECES

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, March 3.—Judge Seawright today freed fifteen more defendants in the Newberry election conspiracy case. This left the field at six defendants. The fifth count of the indictment also was dismissed. This was one founded on the federal statute of October 1910. The judge denied a defense motion for dismissal of counts three and six of the indictment. He then ordered the defense counsel that he would deny a motion for a new trial.

Judge Seawright took the attention of his own motion to deny very close attention to the prosecution's case. He convinced him that he would be overruled in making this motion for a new trial. He denied the clerk to enter a formal order of "not guilty" in fifteen cases.
